

The desktop controller datalogging software allows you to view and control (tare, peak hold etc) live loads on the PC screen and log the data into Microsoft Excel.

You may also record a single reading into a Microsoft Word .doc (useful for test certificates etc)
The package comes in two formats:

Cable Version Part Number: DCP10M

For connection to our self indicating products such as Loadlink and Miniweigher

Kit comprises:

- 1 x USB memory stick with software and manual in .txt format
- 1 x 10 metre cable
- 1 x RS485 - USB convertor (with driver software)

Wireless Version Part Number: RDCP

For connection to Radiolink plus

Kit comprises:

- 1 x USB memory stick with software and manual in .txt format
- 1 x USB wireless transmit/receive module to plug into PC

Suitable for use on PC's running Windows 98, XP or Vista.

